The assignment was very interesting and I enjoyed solving it. I worked together with Harry Potter. I did all the job (developed algorithms, coded, ran them overnight) and he was inspiring me and making coffee, but without that I would have fallen asleep and wouldn't have managed to finish the task.